Continuation of 3. NOTE: Applicant argues that the finality of the rejection was improper, however the claims were previously restricted to the elected species only in accordance with MPEP 803.02, therefore the amendments avoiding the prior art necessitated the new grounds of rejection and was therefore properly made final. Applicant has amended the claims in an attempt to avoid the prior rejection, however since the claims read on subject matter beyond the elected species, the amendments would require further consideration and search.
